ABOUT HEARING VOICES GROUPS

Since their inception in the late 80s, Hearing Voices Groups have become an established and valuable source of support for people who hear voices, see visions or have other unusual sensory perceptions. They provide a safe space for people to share their experiences and find ways of making sense of, and living with, them.

There are over 180 Hearing Voices Groups in the UK, in a range of settings - including charities, user/survivor-led groups, prisons, inpatient units, CAMHS, Early Intervention Services, Forensic settings and community mental health teams.
