

Voices Unlocked Conference 2016

Promoting Hope, Inspiring Change

How can forensic services support people who hear voices, see visions, and experience mental distress?

Wednesday 16th November,
09:30am to 4.30pm
● Blackfriars Settlement, 1 Rushworth Street,
London, SE1 ORB

Keynote speakers

- Ian Bickers, Executive Governor of HMP Wandsworth
- Jacqui Dillon, Writer, Activist, Trainer & Chair of the Hearing Voices Network
- Lady Edwina Grosvenor, Criminal Justice Campaigner & Founder of One Small Thing
- Peter Kinderman, President of the British Psychological Society & Professor of Clinical Psychology
- Paul Tarbuck, Head of Healthcare Inspection, HM Inspectorate of Prisons

Panellists

- Carl Cattermole, Author of HM A Survival Guide
  - Dr Joel Harvey, Lecturer in Clinical Psychology, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience
  - Dr Adrian Needs, Principal Lecturer & Course Leader (MSc Forensic Psychology), University of Portsmouth
- More panellists to be confirmed...

Presentations & Workshops

- Hear from Hearing Voices group facilitators from HMP Pentonville, HMP Wormwood Scrubs & Springfield Hospital Forensic Services.
- Join our workshop on supporting young offenders or our workshop on supporting veterans in prison.

● Challenges facing mental health provision in the current prison landscape ● Recovery model in forensic settings and the specific challenges it faces ● Moving from 'mental health' to a continuum model of mental distress in forensic settings ● Links between the experience of imprisonment and hearing voices ● Our story so far: setting up hearing voices groups in forensic settings ● Other projects working on mental distress and trauma which promote best practice in forensic settings

Bookings

Register on Eventbrite: goo.gl/V1IWTx
Or email us at: emundy@mindincamden.org.uk

Fees

- £10 – Those who have lived experience of voices/visions and/or who have spent time in prison
- £50 – Existing members of Mind in Camden's prisons and secure units network
- £100 – People working in prisons/forensic secure units/IRCs/the NHS/voluntary sector

www.voicesunlocked.com
#voicesunlocked2016

Need an invoice? jwetherell@mindincamden.org.uk
Need more info? emundy@mindincamden.org.uk

Mind in Camden's Hearing Voices: Prisons & Secure Units project is funded by The Bromley Trust, The Rank Foundation, London Catalyst and The Pixel Fund among others.